Parish Notices

Dear friends,

My next piece for the Huffington Post is titled:
"Healing is Your Song: The Inspiring Adventure of a Physician and a Musician."

It features our very own Dr. George Mulcaire-Jones whose work has consistently inspired me ever since I became familiar with it.

It is more than a tribute. It is a reflection on the extraordinary ability we all have to make a transformative difference in the lives of those who suffer, so help us God.

The Butte Central Foundation is in the process of restoring the Little Theatre which is located right inside the Galena Street Entrance. It even has a box office! Several alumni have contributed to replace the stage draperies and the sound and lighting systems. We are now in the process of "selling" the auditorium seats. Joe McBride developed this idea & Kitty Brilliant is taking orders for the seats. There are 450 seats in the theatre. Each seat will have an engraved metal plate on the arm signifying who is being honored: e.g. Dolly Harrington Cowan, class of 1933. So, if you have a senior who is graduating this year or have a "Senior" who graduated in 1954, a sibling, cousin, friend, or even someone who you would like to remember but who didn't graduate from either of the Centrals that is a good way to do so. The donation for each seat is $50.00. Checks should be made out to the Butte Central Foundation with a notation re: Theatre Seats. Enclose a note with the name of the honoree and the year of his/her graduation. Mail to Butte Central Foundation PO Box 634, Butte 59703. Attn: Joe McBride. We are looking forward to many more years of fine productions in the Little Theatre. There are still some seats available; if you have any questions, please call Kitty Brilliant at 494-8110.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

The origin of the festival of All Saints celebrated in the West dates to May 13, 609 or 610, when Pope Boniface IV consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Blessed Virgin and all the Martyrs; the feast of the dedicatio Sanctae Mariae ad Martyres has been celebrated in Rome ever since. There is evidence that from the fifth through the seventh centuries there existed in certain places and at sporadic intervals a feast date May 13th to celebrate the holy martyrs. The origin of All Saints' Day cannot be traced with certainty, and it has been observed on various days in different places. However, there are some who maintain the belief that it has origins in the pagan observation of May 13th the feast of Lemures, in which the malevolent and restless spirits of the dead were propitiated. Liturgiologists base the idea that the Lemuria festival was the origin of that of All Saints in their identical dates and on the similar theme of "all the dead".

The feast day of All Saints, on its current date, is traced to the foundation by Pope Gregory III (731.741) of an oratory in St. Peter's for the relics "of the holy apostles and of all saints, martyrs and confessors, of all the just made perfect who are at rest throughout the world", with the day moved to November 1st and the May 13th feast suppressed.

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1st. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day which is observed on November 2nd. And is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven. Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints -- that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

Roman Catholic Obligation

In the Roman Catholic Church, All saints' Day is a Holy Day of obligation in many (but not all) countries, meaning going to Mass on the date is required unless one has a good reason to be excused from that obligation, such as illness. However, in a number of countries that do list All Saints' Day as a Holy Day of Obligation, including England & Wales, the solemnity of All Saints' Day is transferred to the adjacent Sunday if November 1st falls on a Monday or a Saturday, while in the same circumstances in the United States the Solemnity is still celebrated on November 1st but the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated.
