A Stewardship Moment

In today's second reading we hear Saint Paul urging members of the community at Thessalonica to direct their hearts to God's love through Christ. He wants them to be laser-focused on Christ, and nothing else. He desires that they be strengthened by the Lord and shielded from what is not Christ-like.

Good stewards cultivate a "laser-sharp" focus on Christ; not on things that could give them a false or superficial images or ideals. Let's think about our own daily focus:

Do we direct our hearts toward Christ or are there other "gods" that claim our attention? Our Career? Material possessions? Sexuality? Favorite sports team? Political Leanings? Does our daily life point to Christ so that those who are younger and less mature in their faith learn from our example?

Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise." — Lk 20:34-36
