Eucharistic Adoration

What is a Holy Hour?

- ⇒ Although you can spend any length of time before the Blessed Sacrament, it is customary to spend one hour in Adoration. We receive this tradition from Jesus' words to His Apostles in Matthew 26:40:

- ⇒ "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?"

- ⇒ The Eucharistic Adoration schedule is in need of a permanent adorer on Fridays from 12-1. Could this person be you? Call Becky Hyle 560-5748 for more information.

Our desire for God can only grow when we place ourselves in His presence.

-Pope Francis

Congratulations to our O.C.I.A. candidates who received their sacraments at Easter Vigil:

Easter Sunday

"The Lord Has Risen Indeed!"

(Luke 24:34)

- ◆ "O day of resurrection! Let us beam with festive joy! Today indeed is the Lord's own Passover. From death to life, from earth to heaven, Christ has risen from the dead! Yesterday I was buried with you, O Christ, today I rise with you as you arise. Yesterday I was crucified with you; glorify me with you, savior, in your kingdom. Amen."—St. John of Damascus

Fr. Patrick's Further Reading Corner*For further study on Conversion in our Relationship with God

- ⇒ Lots of questions followed my final homily on Lenten Conversion. The interest was especially sharp in the utterly compelling story of Charles de Foucauld.
 ⇒ Two very recent books bring to light the magnificent conversion narrative.
 ⇒ "Charles de Foucauld" by Jean-Jacques Antier - a superb and immensely inspiring biography.
 ⇒ "St. Charles de Foucauld-Journey to Tamanrasset" by Antione Chatelard-a profound and thoroughly honest study and his inner pilgrimage and turmoils.
